

1st Grade Writing Journal with Alphabet Practice

Writing daily in a language and composition journal will help your kindergarten, 1st grade and second grade student develop their writing skills--the development of good reading and writing skills is essential not only for success in school but also for success in life. Practicing grammatically correct sentence development is a fundamental key to becoming an excellent writer. The 1st Grade Writing Journal can be used for students in kindergarten, 1st grade, and 2nd grade in conjunction with ready-made story-starters and writing prompts. The 1st Grade writing journal can be used daily by primary grade beginning writers to record their daily activities, adventures, and imaginative thoughts. Writing and composition journals help students to clarify their thoughts. Taking time to jot down feelings and thoughts about daily events can give young, beginning writers an opportunity to discover what they think and how they feel about different topics.

Writing in a language and composition journal is comfortable for beginning writers in kindergarten, 1st Grade, and 2nd Grade because it is a casual and informal process. It isn't structured or graded like assignments in 3rd, 4th, and 5th grades. Students are allowed to free-write and become immersed in expression. Students should be allowed to write about different topics, which will give them the opportunity to improve their writing skills while exploring their thoughts without being chastised for grammar, usage, or other errors. Let this writing and composition journal for Kindergarten, 1st Grade, 2nd Grade be an idea book--a place where the student is free to think in writing.
