

Observations on the Barrenness of Fruit Trees: And the Means of Prevention and Cure (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Observations on the Barrenness of Fruit Trees: And the Means of Prevention and Cure For I assure you, I have no secret pastes, powders, potions, or plaisters to sell, for the cure of fruit trees in any disease or malady whatever. I have no darling theory to support; I have no doctrines to elucidate, by Phlogiston, Hydrogen, Carbon, Hydroguret, or any word ancient or modern, but what can be as well explained by Chrononhotonthologus, or any other word you please. I have made no experiments for the purpose of discovery; I have only attempted to follow an universal law of nature, and I was certain if I did not mistake her path, she would not lead me wrong. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
