

How Red Is My Neck?

Can a serious author venture into humorous writing without destroying the last few shreds of his credibility? Lets find out. Dog stories, cat stories, redneck stories, horse stories, Hong Kong stories, and of course the infamous hog stories. Id like to meet Michael LaRocca he seems like a great person. I admire those who turn adversity into something positive.Im still amazed that someone who held a boars penis in his hands on a daily basis ended up teaching conversational English in China. Brett Scott, Timeless Tales Many times throughout the book I found myself laughing hysterically over his perspective on life, whether or not it was in America or Hong Kong. Its a personable book and I enjoyed it immensely. How Red Is My Neck? gives us a view of China that we might not find in American media.We could learn a lot from each other and our contrasts. If youre looking for a book that touches your heart and keeps it light as well, this is the one for you. I really loved this book and give it a top rating of 10. Jennifer LB Leese @ ASTORYWEAVERS Book Reviews Youve never met a redneck like Michael LaRocca. And, unless your concept of a redneck is someone who loves animals, delights in encountering people from different cultures, and moves easily between environments as diverse as an electronics firm, a pig farm, and mainland China, expect Michael LaRocca to redefine that term for you. The authors energetic and staccato prose straddles the distance between North Carolina and Hong Kong as easily as it bestrides the disparate co-realities of hog farm and electronics firm. And we always have Michael for company, a dog-lover, a cat-sap, an appreciator of peculiar characters and someone whos always ready for something new. Hes the sort of person who takes in strays and strives to get to know their individual natures. Hes the sort of person who can give up everything hes ever known and fly to Hong Kong to follow up an internet romance, vaulting the corporate cubicle in a single bound and resigning by e-mail from half-a-world away. A funny and surprising man with the skill to put himself on the book page in living color, he possesses of the kind of unreserved honesty that most of us achieve only after a few drinks. Get to know Michael LaRocca. Spend some time with him. You wont regret it. Bill Stephens, GWN Book Reviewer bill_stephensca@yahoo.ca
