

Tattle Tales: Essays and Stories Along the Way

Abbe Rolnickteller of tales, celebrant of life, world traveleroffers visions from the heart in this collection of short stories and essays. Explorations of whimsy and wisdom take the reader from the basement of a young girl learning about the Holocaust via a repairman, to a literal and psychological deep dive in the Caribbean, to the humble truths of a dung beetle in Africa, and all points in between. The authors keen perception and compassion light the way. Truth has many layers, viewpoints give a perspective, slices create a feel, and putting them together, the reader sees more of the author, more of themselves, and can enter other worlds.
